

OLAUS T. NILSSON

Olaus T. Nilsson was born in Sweden on September 11, 1843. He came to Utah by ox team in Captain Nebeker's company in 1866. In the same company was a young widow, Anna Hanson. They became very friendly and were married in 1868. Of this union four children were born: Andrew, Oscar, Sarah and Josephine.

In 1873 they moved to Heber City, living in a one-room log cabin with a dirt roof, and enduring the hardships of early pioneer life.

Olaus was a farmer and later became the sexton at Heber City. He was a kind, honest man. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint,
